L. Moody Jr. Natural History Series):

Veteran gardener and author Judy Barrett's book dispels the idea that growing plants we can eat is harder than growing plants we can't eat and introduces readers to the idea of placing plants that can produce in an ordinary landscape a harvest of herbs vegetables fruits and nuts Whether buying a few tomato plants for a patio container or exploring the idea of a frontyard or kitchen plot incorporating plants that "bear food" The author has a wonderful conversational style of writing — I can hear her voice come through as clearly as if we were talking over a cup of coffee This book is like having a conversation with a very knowledgeable gardening friend who is sha
